Earlier this year the British government announced a 'roadmap' for easing the rules that were put in place to prevent the spread and impact of the COVID-19 outbreak. Step Four of the roadmap is set to be introduced on Monday 21st June with all legal limits on social contact removed, premises such as nightclubs reopening and restrictions on large events and performances eased. It has been proposed that people in Britain would be able to use a 'vaccine passport' in order to visit certain places and do certain things. A vaccine passport would be an electronic or paper document that would show whether an individual had been vaccinated against COVID19, recently tested negative or have natural immunity after being ill with COVID19. It has been proposed that people in Britain would be able to use a 'vaccine passport' in order to visit certain places and do certain things. A vaccine passport would be an electronic or paper document that would show whether an individual had been vaccinated against COVID19, recently tested negative or have natural immunity after being ill with COVID19. Do you support or oppose the introduction of vaccine passports?
